

Terms and conditions of attendance
- for events organised by the Mathias Corvinus Collegium Alapítvány -

The registrant acknowledges that the Mathias Corvinus Collegium Alapítvány (hereinafter referred to as "MCC"), as well as contractors and contributors, press staff, other visitors and other third parties authorised by MCC, may record photos, video and audio at the event.

Accordingly, by attending the event, the registrant expressly acknowledges that his/her image, appearance and expressions may be recorded and communicated by the above persons, and the registrant may be named only if he/she has given consent thereto. If the registrant is a public figure, he/she may be named without his/her consent.

Subject to the foregoing, by attending the event, the registrant expressly consents to be photographed, video recorded and audio recorded and consents to the disclosure of the recordings.

The registrant acknowledges that the person making the recording acquires an unrestricted, transferable and exclusive right of use of the photo, video and audio recording. MCC is entitled to exploit, use, reproduce, publish, adapt, disclose and distribute the recording without restriction and without any consideration. The registrant shall not be entitled to any claim or demand against MCC in connection with this use.

The registrant shall refrain from any conduct at the event venue that endangers or may endanger or threaten the personal rights, life, physical integrity or health of others.

The registrant shall comply with the rules and regulations applicable at the event venue, especially but not limited to the house rules, fire and accident protection and prevention rules and epidemiological regulations.
